Sidmouth Town Band The Next 150 years: Play Your Part

Become a Friend of Sidmouth Town Band

Sidmouth Town Band has outgrown its current band room and has now found a new home, with space to accommodate new players, rehearse for competitions, provide tuition and store music and instruments. The hall is leased but work has been carried out to improve the acoustics and provide a practical rehearsal space as well as a multi-use hall. To help raise the funds needed to make the changes and then to pay for the annual lease and running costs a Friends Group was launched. Becoming a Friend of Sidmouth Town Band will play a valuable part in helping the band maintain the band room of their dreams.

Sidmouth Town Band needs your help more than ever at the moment. Work continues on improvements to the hall and The Brass Academy is ready to be launched. However, events in 2020 have inevitably seen a significant reduction in band income from concerts and some important expenses must still be met.
